

1.10.2015

Meeting with the representatives of Danica and Symphony Shipping company in ONMA

The meeting with the representatives of Danica company (Mr. Henrik Jensen - Managing Director of Danica Maritime Services, Hamburg, Germany) as well as with representatives of the Symphony Shipping (Mr. Jari H. van Niejenhuis Managing Director of Symphony Shipping, the Netherlands, and Ms. Natasja van Niejenhuis-Rensen, director of Symphony Shipping, Netherlands) with the purpose of the meeting with the Rector of the Academy, familiarization with the Academy and its simulator training base, discussion of the issues for cooperation and the system of simulator training was held in Odessa National Maritime Academy on 1 October. Danica is a leading provider of highly competent officers from Ukraine and Russia. The company provides more than 450 officers to first-class shipowners and managers around the globe. The company's concept is to connect demanding shipowners and managers with highly competent seafarers through trustworthy crewing services exceeding the highest industry standards. Symphony Shipping BV is a young and ambitious shipping company, involved in new build project development and management activities, designing and operating their vessels with a clear focus on energy efficiency, emission reduction and optimized cargo flexibility. In pursuit of maximum performance and return on investment, Symphony Shipping is committed to an optimum combination of partnership, environmental awareness and efficient entrepreneurship.

